C. Craig Eller

Mr. Craig Eller is a Partner in the West Palm Beach office of Broad and Cassel. He is a member of the Firm's Bankruptcy and Creditors' Rights, Commercial Litigation, Intellectual Property, and Special Assets Practice Groups.

- As the leader of the bankruptcy and creditors' rights practice group in a previous law firm, Mr. Eller advised clients on reorganization and bankruptcy strategies. His client base included national financial institutions, asset managers, portfolio managers, international shipping companies, motor vehicle manufacturers, and technology companies.
- Mr. Eller has over 20 years experience in business reorganization, litigation, intellectual property, regulatory compliance, real estate acquisition, employment litigation, class actions, foreclosure, bankruptcy, estates and contractual disputes.
- Mr. Eller has been recognized with an AV® Peer Review Rating with Martindale-Hubbell, the agency's highest mark for both competency and ethics and is achieved by only 5 percent of attorneys.
- Mr. Eller served as General Counsel and Vice President of Administration for a Florida based import company. He was responsible for patent and trademark filings, administrative compliance, the sale of corporate securities, product liability loss mitigation, contract review, litigation, and human resource matters.
- Mr. Eller has lectured for the National Business Institute on Creditors' Rights and Collections and is a member of the Florida Bar Grievance Committee for the Fifteenth Judicial Circuit.
- Mr. Eller is Board Certified in Business Litigation Law. He is also Board Certified in Business Bankruptcy Law by the American Board of Certification.
- He was designated a 2006, 2007, 2008 and 2009 "Florida Super Lawyer" by Law & Politics magazine.

Mr. Eller is active in various professional and community organizations.
