Corina Castillo-Johnson

Ms. Corina Castillo-Johnson is an Associate in the Orlando office of Broad and Cassel. She is a member of the Firm's Real Estate Practice Group.

■ Ms. Castillo-Johnson's practice focuses on the development, acquisition, and disposition of real estate. She assists clients with complex issues relating to developments of regional impact, mixed-use and planned developments as well as leasing of commercial and aviation property.

■ Ms. Castillo-Johnson works with clients throughout the entire development process beginning with contract negotiation, due diligence and land acquisition, continuing with the procurement of land use approvals and entitlements and concluding with the disposition of such property. Her experience involves the representation of private and public entities with regard to a variety of land use and zoning matters and concerning local and state legislative and governmental issues. She advises land developers with regard to concurrency issues and negotiating agreements with local governments necessary for commencement and completion of projects. Additionally, Ms. Castillo-Johnson has assisted clients in the establishment of Community Development Districts and other local government financing mechanisms.

■ In 2008, Ms. Castillo-Johnson was named one of Orlando Business Journal's "Forty Under 40".

■ Ms. Castillo-Johnson is also fluent in Spanish.

■ Ms. Castillo-Johnson was named a "Rising Star" in the 2009 "Florida Super Lawyers" by Law & Politics magazine.

An active member of the community, Ms. Castillo-Johnson serves on the City of Orlando Municipal Planning Board, the Board of Directors of the Hispanic Bar Association of Central Florida, is a member of the Orange County Bar Association and the Florida Bar Association Law Related Education Committee. She has also served two terms on the Board of Directors for both the Central Florida Association of Women Lawyers and the Mennello Museum of American Art.
