Cathy M. Sellers

Ms. Cathy M. Sellers is Partner in the Tallahassee office of Broad and Cassel. She is a member of the Firm's Land Use and Environmental Practice Group.

- Ms. Sellers's practice focuses on environmental, land use, and administrative law. She is experienced in permitting and litigation before state, regional, and federal administrative agencies, including the Florida Department of Community Affairs, Florida Fish & Wildlife Conservation Commission, Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund, Florida Land and Water Adjudicatory Commission, Florida Department of Environmental Protection, water management districts, the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, and the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, involving industrial wastewater, air emissions, wetlands and surface water, consumptive water use, threatened and endangered species regulation, solid waste management, coastal construction, and use of sovereign lands.
- Ms. Sellers is board certified by the Florida Bar in State and Federal Governmental and Administrative Practice.
- Ms. Sellers is a frequent speaker on Florida administrative law and environmental law topics in connection with Florida Chamber of Commerce environmental and land use seminars.
- She has assisted many notable clients, including Gulf Bay Communities, Southstar Development Partners, Inc., and Pepsi Americas, Inc. on environmental, land use, and administrative law matters.
- She holds an AV rating with Martindale-Hubbell (only 5 percent of attorneys are awarded this rating), a rating denoting the highest accolade an attorney can receive for his "legal ability" and "adherence to professional standards of conduct, ethics, reliability and diligence."
- She was also named a "Florida Super Lawyer" by Law & Politics magazine for four years in a row. For five consecutive years she was recognized by the top legal guide "The Best Lawyers in America" published by Woodward and White, in environmental and land use and zoning law.

Ms. Sellers serves on the University of Florida Alumni Association Board of Directors and is an adjunct faculty member at the University of Florida Levin College of Law, where she teaches Florida Administrative Law.
