Douglas L. Mannheimer

Douglas L. Mannheimer is a Partner in the Tallahassee office of Broad and Cassel. He is Chairperson of the Firm's Governmental Relations Practice Group and is a member of the Health Law Practice Group.

- For more than 28 years, Mr. Mannheimer has represented businesses and individuals before most of Florida's state agencies, including the Agency for Health Care Administration, the Office of Insurance Regulation and the Departments of Health, Transportation, Business and Professional Regulation, Education and Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles.
- His significant experience and background with state agencies helps clients to solve bureaucratic problems. Mr. Mannheimer is also a veteran registered lobbyist who vigorously represents his clients' positions before the state legislature and state agencies.
- Mr. Mannheimer is one of only five percent of attorneys awarded an AV rating with the Martindale Hubbell publication, denoting the highest accolade an attorney can receive for his "legal ability" and "adherence to professional standards of conduct, ethics, reliability and diligence."
- He has also been recognized as a leading healthcare attorney in prominent Chambers USA: A Guide to America's Leading Business Lawyers for 2008 and 2009. He was also recognized by Law & Politics magazine as one of Florida's "Super Lawyers" in governmental relations.
- Mr. Mannheimer was appointed by the Florida Legislature to represent it as a Commissioner on the Century Commission for a Sustainable Florida, the blue-ribbon panel charged with making major sustainability recommendations for Florida.
- Mr. Mannheimer serves as Legislative Counsel to the Florida Health Care Association.
- Mr. Mannheimer is a Commissioner on the Florida Federal Judicial Nominating Committee and on the state's Century Commission for a Sustainable Florida. He also served as Chairperson of the Florida Commission on Integrated Health Care Delivery Systems, a state blue ribbon panel, created by the Legislature.
- Mr. Mannheimer is a Preferred Attorney Provider for the Florida Association of Homes and Services for the Aging.
- Mr. Mannheimer represents a variety of business clients before the Legislature, including health care professional associations, long-term care, physicians, telecommunications providers, finance institutions, outdoor advertising firms, and medical equipment providers.
