Jeffrey Robinson

Mr. Jeff Robinson is a Partner in the Miami office of Broad and Cassel. He serves as the Chairperson of the Firm's Corporate and Securities Practice Group and is a member of the Public Finance and Capital Projects Practice Group.

- Mr. Robinson has a sophisticated corporate and securities practice with continued particular focus on public and private financing and mergers and acquisitions for emerging and mid-sized companies.
- Among the public and private clients which he represents are computer software corporations, restaurant chains, medical device manufacturers, biotechnology concerns and computer learning centers. Mr. Robinson also represents several mid-tier investment banking firms in Florida and New York.
- He has represented business in deals ranging from $7 million to $800 million over the past two years.
- Notable clients include Perry Ellis and Netspeak, for whom he arranged start up capital in 1995.
- He began his practice in New York City specializing in corporate, securities and business law. He represented major publicly traded companies as well as emerging business and middle market corporations.
- He offers experience in the early stage of a company, being proactive in introductions to the financial community. He then stays with the company throughout the years as they become larger and profitable.

Mr. Robinson is involved in various community and professional organizations.
