Kathleen Deutsch

Ms. Kathleen Deutsch is a Partner in the West Palm Beach office of Broad and Cassel. She is a member of the Firm's Corporate and Securities and Public Finance and Capital Projects Practice Groups.

- Ms. Deutsch served as a law clerk to The Honorable Stanley Marcus, U.S. District Court, and taught legal research and writing and appellate advocacy at the University of Miami School of Law.
- Ms. Deutsch represents a large number of entrepreneurial clients. She has represented a wide variety of both publicly- and privately-held businesses in mergers and acquisitions, public and private offerings of securities, joint ventures and general corporate matters. She regularly advises companies on compliance with their reporting obligations under the Securities Exchange Act, including compliance with Sarbanes-Oxley and corporate governance requirements. She has also served as special counsel to committees of the boards of directors of public companies.
- Ms. Deutsch served as general counsel for a cruise line for six years and represented the line in its public and private securities offerings, and domestic and international joint ventures, including the restructuring of an operational joint venture that operates the Semester-at-Sea program, and the establishment of an operational joint venture with a publicly held land-based casino operator.
- She represented a publicly-traded sportswear distributor in a $150 million high yield private debt offering, followed by a public exchange offering.
- In 2004, she represented the Governor's office of the State of Florida in the negotiation and documentation of the landmark Scripps Florida transaction.
- Ms. Deutsch has also represented a wide range of companies in other diverse transactions including serving as U.S. securities counsel for an Australian pearling company and representing it in connection with its registration of American Depositary Receipts with the Securities and Exchange Commission. She also served as securities counsel for a publicly traded music retailer and represented it in connection with its merger into another publicly held music retailer.

Ms. Deutsch has been active in various professional and community organizations. She was designated a 2006, 2007 and 2008 "Florida Super Lawyer" by Law & Politics magazine.
