Nina Gordon

Nina S. Gordon is a Partner in the Boca Raton office of Broad and Cassel. She is a member of the Firm's Corporate and Securities and Banking and Institutional Lending Practice Groups.

- She has completed numerous significant business acquisitions while at Broad and Cassel. Her work has been for both public and private companies, including the $153 million acquisition of Admiralty Bancorp, Inc., a Florida-based, publicly traded bank holding company, by the Royal Bank of Canada completed in January 2003.
- She has represented public companies in a variety of financing transactions, including public and private equity offerings; public and private debt offerings, such as commercial paper, medium-term notes and subordinated debt; and asset-backed and other secured and unsecured loans.
- In addition to the areas of corporate finance and transactions and securities law, Ms. Gordon has experience in all aspects of banking law and bank regulatory matters, including de novo charters, holding company reorganizations and bank acquisitions. She also frequently represents lenders in corporate loan transactions.
- Her clients include many local banks and large national banks such as Wachovia Bank and RBC Centura Bank.

Ms. Gordon is active in the community and a variety of organizations. She is a member of the Board of Directors of the Association of Public Corporations.
