Ronald M. Gaché

Mr. Ron Gaché is a Partner in the West Palm Beach office of Broad and Cassel. He serves as a member of the Firm's Real Estate Litigation and Commercial Litigation Practice Groups.

- Mr. Gaché's practice involves litigation in all areas of business, commercial, and real estate transactions including the enforcement of non-competition covenants, theft of trade secrets, construction defect cases, real estate disputes and complex landlord/tenant matters.
- Mr. Gaché also concentrates in the area of employment contract disputes.
- He has lectured before the International Council of Shopping Centers and maintains a strong shopping center owner/client base.
- In addition to his litigation expertise, Mr. Gaché spends considerable time negotiating and drafting leases and other documentation involved in the landlord/tenant relationship. When necessary, he will try jury and non-jury cases to conclusion, staying with the client as both negotiator and litigator. Most recently, he was lead trial counsel in complex litigation involving the enforcement of an oral partnership agreement concerning the sale of a multi-million dollar parcel of real estate.
- Mr. Gaché is Board Certified in Business Litigation.
- Mr. Gaché has been admitted to the Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals, the U.S. Supreme Court, and the U.S. District Courts for the Southern and Middle Districts of Florida.
- Mr. Gaché has been designated a 2007 and 2008 "Florida Legal Elite" in Florida Trend Magazine and a "Florida Super Lawyer" by Law & Politics magazine for four consecutive years.

A lifelong resident of South Florida, Mr. Gaché performs volunteer work for a number of organizations. He is currently serving as Trustee of the Palm Beach Area Chapter of the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society of America.
